APRIL 13, 7:00pm.

BookCulture, 112th between Broadway and Amsterdam

Join Rhiannon Stephens in conversation with Carl Wennerlind, as they celebrate the publication of Poverty and Wealth in East Africa, and discuss 1000 years of changing idioms and concepts in Uganda, and in comparative perspective. Moderated by Rosalind Morris.

Rhiannon Stephens is Associate Professor of History at Columbia University, author of A History of African Motherhood: The Case of Uganda, 700–1900, and coeditor of Doing Conceptual History in Africa.

Carl Wennerlind is Professor of History at Barnard College. He is the author of Casualties of Credit: The English Financial Revolution, 1620–1720, A Philosopher's Economist: Hume and the Rise of Capitalism, together with Margaret Schabas, and, most recently, Scarcity: A History from the Origins of Capitalism to the Climate Crisis, with Fredrik Albritton Jonsson.
